Marina Guide & Tide Tables 2020

Troon Yacht Haven we love boating

Troon Yacht Haven is the perfect base for your cruising adventures.

Situated on the Southern Clyde Estuary, Troon is the ideal port when making passage to Ireland, the south or for starting your Scottish explorations.

Easily accessible and well-protected by our large harbour walls, our staff are on-site 24/7 to keep a watchful eye on your boat and to help you maximise your time on the water.

On-site you'll find all the amenities you'd expect of a modern day marina as well as a fully operational boatyard and a fantastic bar & restaurant. Moreover, our latest investment at Troon introduces a new way to stay at the marina, The Salt Lodge, opening early 2020. Ten stunning one and two bedroom suites with stylish living spaces. If you're staying aboard your boat, why not invite your friends along with you to stay at The Salt Lodge?

Alongside the new development, we've updated the marina office, laundry and fitted out a new berth holder lounge with comfortable sofas to relax in, a desk to check your emails, and a live weather monitor to assist your passage planning.

Whatever your plans, we hope you'll enjoy your stay at the marina.

We're looking forward to welcoming you, your family and your crew to Troon this year.

Tip!

The team at the marina office are bursting with ideas and suggestions for cruising! Just ask us and we'd be happy to share our local knowledge.

Cruising inspiration

Discover the beautiful scenery and rich local heritage.

The West Coast of Scotland is regarded as having some of the best sailing waters in the world, with the Firth of Clyde the most popular gateway to discovering Scotland by sea. The Clyde's long lochs reach far into the Highlands and take sailors into Argyll and beyond, to remote outposts in the far north west.

Our favourite cruising spots:

Isle of Arran

Just 15 miles from Troon, and if you stick to an exact westerly course you'll arrive at Lamlash. Visitor moorings are available and a warm welcome awaits ashore where you can enjoy a pleasant lunch looking out over the bay to Holy Isle. Just north of Lamlash is Brodick, which has lots to offer including hotels, restaurants and a golf course. Brodick Castle is well worth a visit, and has a wonderful new adventure playground.

From Troon – 15 miles

Loch Fyne

With the safety of Tarbert harbour and Portavadie for mooring, the picturesque loch is flanked by large rolling hills. Tarbert may appear a sleepy and pretty fishing village, but it is also known for its famous food and drink culture. Plus, look out for Tarbet Castle illuminating the village at night.

From Troon – 35 miles

Isle of Bute

Head north up the Clyde to Rothesay or Port Bannatyne on the Isle of Bute. Both have pontoon berths and a good selection of bars and restaurants ashore.

From Troon – 25 miles

Campbeltown Loch

Sail towards the south end of Arran, leaving the Island of Pladda to starboard and Ailsa Craig to port. You will experience some breathtaking scenery as you sail towards the Mull of Kintyre. Sail up Campbeltown Loch to the harbour and visit the superb Royal Hotel, which has been fully refurbished and prides itself on excellent food and service.

From Troon – 38 miles

Islands of Gigha and Jura

If you have the luxury of taking a long trip, continue round the Mull of Kintyre to the beautiful island of Gigha and then north towards the Isle of Jura and Islay returning south through the Crinan Canal to Loch Fyne, sailing homewards via Tarbert.

"Scotland provides hauntingly beautiful cruising and fine food and drink. With modern marinas, wild anchorages and friendly fishing ports there is plenty to go round when you sail Scotland."

Sailing Today Magazine

Largs Yacht Haven, Largs, Ayrshire, KA30 8EZ

Things to do

The coastal town of Troon has long been a popular holiday destination, and it's easy to see why. When your sea legs are crying out for dry land, Troon and its surrounding area offers a wealth of attractions, places of interest, and plenty of outdoor activities to keep you entertained all day long.

Must visit

Take the pretty coastal walk from Troon Yacht Haven to the Royal Troon Golf Club via the ballast bank and South Beach promenade. We'll show you a lovely loop that will take you along the beach, through the historic golf courses and back via the town centre.

Fun for the family

Troon Leisure Centre is just a short walk away from Troon Yacht Haven with a large swimming pool and gym. But for a real water thrill, the Magnum Centre in Irvine is Scotland's biggest leisure centre with one of the greatest waterslides. The centre also has a range of sporting facilities and a cinema.

Be a sport

No trip to Ayrshire would be complete without a round of golf. With six golf courses on our doorstep including infamous Royal Troon Golf Club, we really are "Scotland's Golfing Marina". Dundonald Links, Turnberry, Western Gailles and Prestwick are just some of the dozens of courses all within easy reach of Troon.

A bit of history

If you're stuck for inspiration, one of Ayrshire's stunning castles and ruins would be well worth a visit. Dundonald Castle is steeped in history and offers stunning views from its hilltop location. Undoubtedly one of the most popular castles in the county, Culzean is perched right on the coast and offers spectacular gardens and the castle itself to visit. Lovingly looked after by the National Trust for Scotland, it makes an excellent day out for the whole family. Or head to the Burns National Heritage Park to learn more about Scotland's national poet and the Bachelors' Club in Tarbolton to discover his 17th century equivalent of the modern day Man Cave.

Tip!
Berth holders and visitors get preferential booking and discounted green fees at many of the nearby golf courses by booking through the marina.
